The Legend of Sonny Bryan's

In 1910 Elias Bryan moved his family to Dallas from Ohio and opened the first Bryan's Barbecue. His son, William Jennings Bryan, (known as Red, for his hair) opened his own restaurant in Oak Cliff, Texas in 1935. Working with his Dad was William Jennings Bryan, Jr. who was known as "Sonny."

Sonny left Red in 1957 to open his own place in Dallas. Sonny opened his restaurant on February 13th, the same day his Daddy and Granddaddy opened their restaurants. Since that time the legend has spread nationwide, in fact, worldwide! Sonny's reputation for friendly service and melt-in-your-mouth barbecue has fed U.S. Presidents, famous entertainers, sports legends and most discerning of barbecue critics - the people of Dallas, Texas.
